Hot STORE

The worlds of music and fashion unite as a new John Varvatos store opens in the space that once housed legendary NYC music club CBGB. Eric Dane and Casey Affleck are fans of the menswear collection that is now displayed alongside graffiti-inscribed and poster-plastered walls left over from the venue's 30 years of punk rock history. johnvarvatos.com

Hot TRENCH

Rachel Bilson proves that outerwear doesn't always have to be dark! The fashionista brightened up her spring wardrobe with the Honeycomb trench by Tulle. This $87 coat is not only affordable but also supertrendy, with three-quarter length sleeves and a front-tie-belt detail. Rachel's paprika-colored trench is also available in basic black, white and olive. tulle4us.com

Hot BAG

The vibrant color of this Linea Pelle Dylan Zip tote makes it the perfect accessory for Marcia Cross' simple attire. Accented with domed metal studs and roomy zippered pockets, the $595 washed-leather handbag comes in a variety of hues. Although not available until June 20, shoppers can be the first to wear this hot tote by preordering at lpcollection.com.

Pick Of The Week!

Hot GAME

Video-game devotees can now practice their driving skills with Nintendo's new Mario Kart Wii. The $50 kart-racing game and wheel are packaged together and are the newest addition to the hands-on game craze. Josh Lucas and Lukas Haas have challenged each other in wii Boxing, while Joshua Jackson loves the wii Bowling game. nintendo.com/wii

Hot BOOK

Beach lover Matthew McConaughey would love the breathtaking images in Sunsets, a new book of photos capturing 80 of the world's most beautiful beaches, oceans and mountains. The photographer will donate a portion of the book's $10 price to charities benefitting the arts. amazon.com
